

PRIVACY NOTICE

Upper Oakdale Neighbourhood Watch (UONHW) is committed to helping you make the most of your free time on the Internet within a trusted environment. This privacy policy discloses how we collect, protect, and use information gathered about you on this website. We hope that this disclosure will help increase your confidence in our site and enhance your experience on the Internet.

Information collected from you with technology

We do not and will not collect any information other than that you supplied when you registered.

What are cookies and how do we use them?

Cookies are pieces of information that a Web site sends to your computer while you are viewing the web site. These pieces of information allow the web site to remember important information that will make your use of the web site more useful. We, and other web-site owners use cookies for variety of purposes. You can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent or you can choose to turn off all cookies. You do this through your browser (like Netscape Navigator or Internet Explorer) settings. Each browser is a little different, so you should look at your browser help menu to learn the correct way to modify your cookies. If you turn cookies off, you won't have access to many features that make your web experience more efficient - like the features mentioned above -- and some of our services will not function properly and certain circumstance you may even experience errors while browsing.

How do we use the personally identifiable information that has been collected?

We use personally identifiable information in a limited number of ways.

1. We use the information to enable us to help ascertain our membership numbers.
2. We use your information if you enter an incident report so that we may contact you should there be any questions regarding it's detail.

Do we share information with companies or other organisations?

No. If a situation ever arises whereby, we feel there is a need to share your information and that this need is for your benefit, then your explicit permission would have to be sought and granted in order for this to occur.

What type of security do you provide?

The importance of security for all personally identifiable information associated with our members is of utmost concern to us. This website employs the latest technology to protect all members' information.
